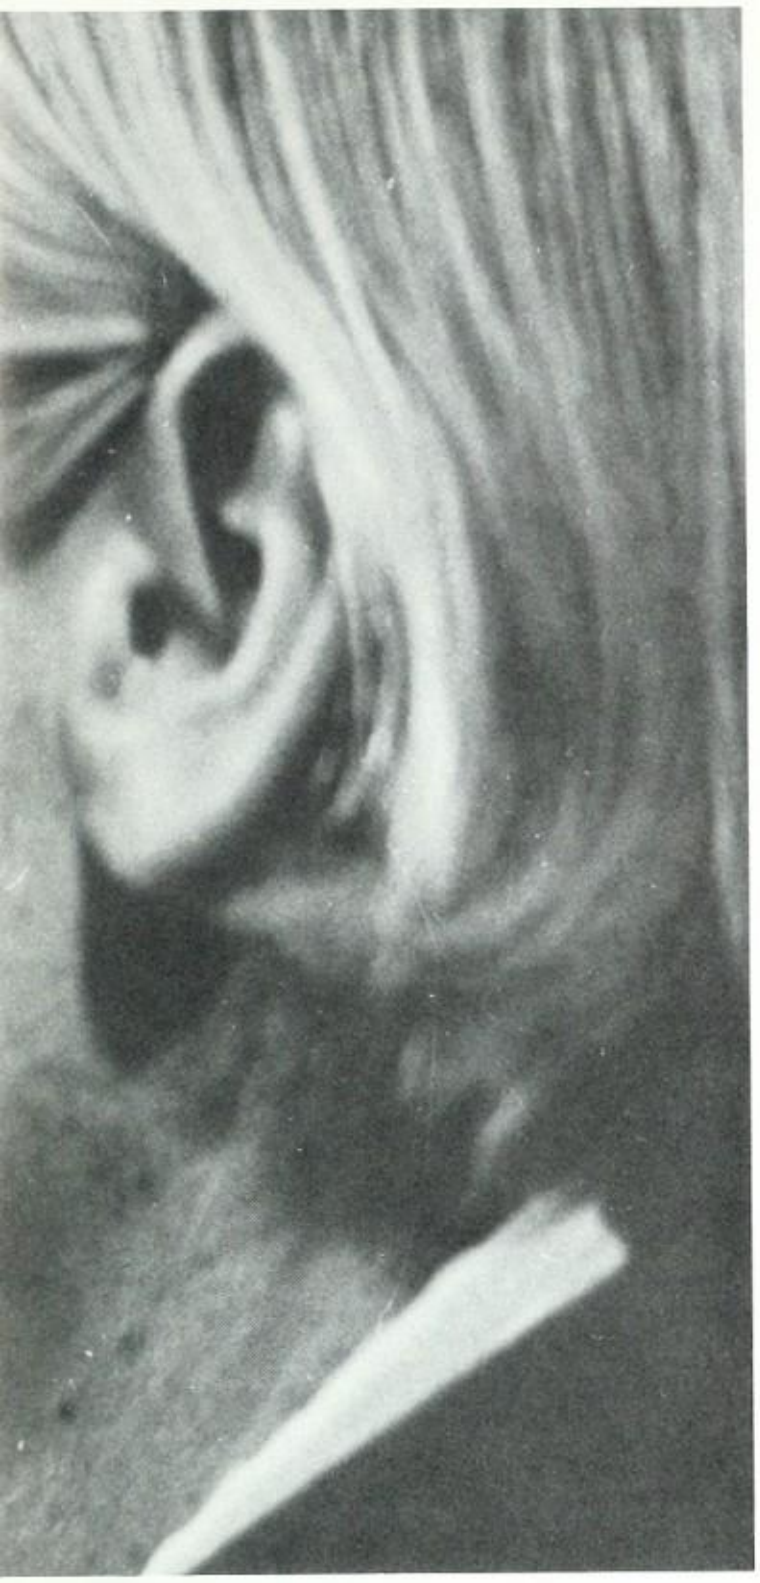
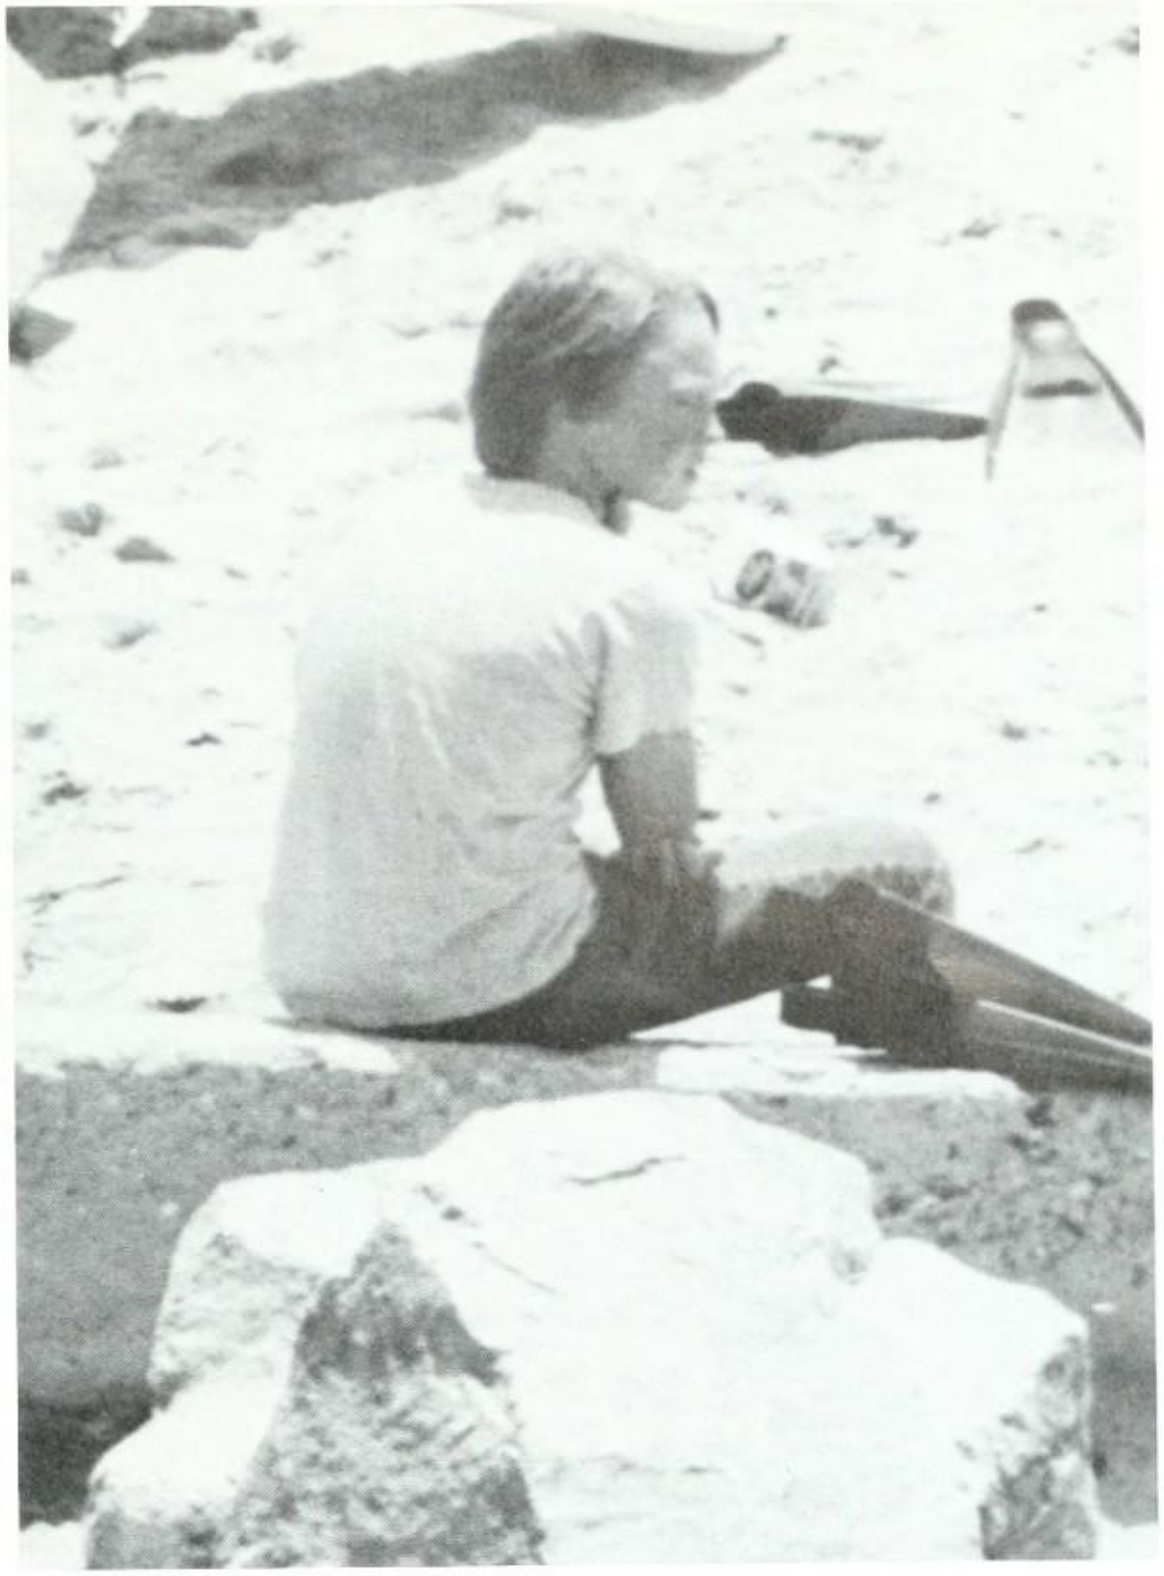
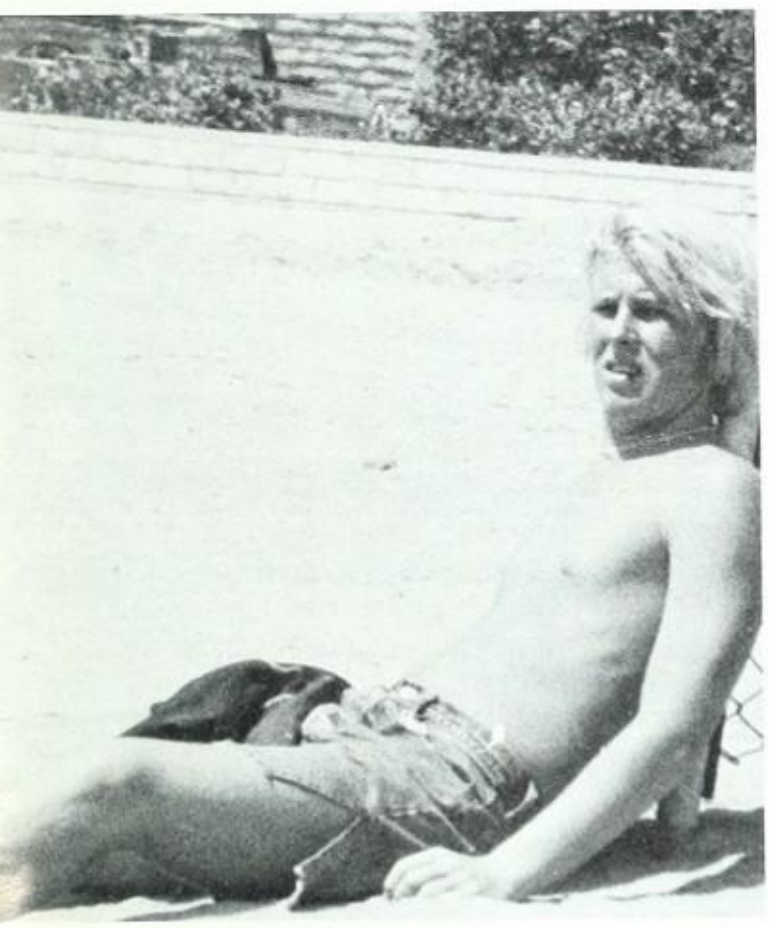
In summer the living is easy, and life is for the young.

Living a free and easy life,
Without trouble or strife.
Living to do as you please,
Without anyone to criticize and tease,
Working to make this world one,
Life can only be beautiful when this is done.

. . . Carol Weed







Ronda,
Well, we've gone through quite a bit these last few years and I've enjoyed every minute that I've known you. I know that you make some very wise decisions and I truly hope and pray that your decision to marry is the best one you will or ever have made. I'm gonna miss you, because I know we won't be seeing each other too often. Be sure to remember how close we are & were and just remember to always be happy in everything you do. Love ya

Rhonda

I'm sure glad we were friends again this year
And when I was mad, forget it Shelly wasn't. But that's straightened out now. I'm so happy about you and Kevin, I hope it works out real great because you deserve it. I wish you all the luck in the world in all you do and hope all your dreams and wishes come true.
Well That's about all except I wish for you all your dreams come true.

God Bless
Andy

Life involves the old and the new. . .

A new school year begins at Oceanside High. . . Matriculation Day.

Rhonda,

What do I say? Rhonda you've told me things this year that have helped me alot. I'll always remember you. I'm happy for you & Kevin. I wish the best in life to you. Thanks you for everything. Remember that I'm. nite. Sorry I was such an ass. Really. I want to say so much but can't find the right words. The poem below helps some. Look ahead and stay happy.

Rhonda, I'll miss you so much. We'll have to keep in touch. Be good & stay happy. Bye till we meet again. Love is you.

Looking back and remembering all the good times we had,
Looking forward and wondering what will be,
There's no time to look back and be sad.
There's only time to look ahead and dream of what will be.

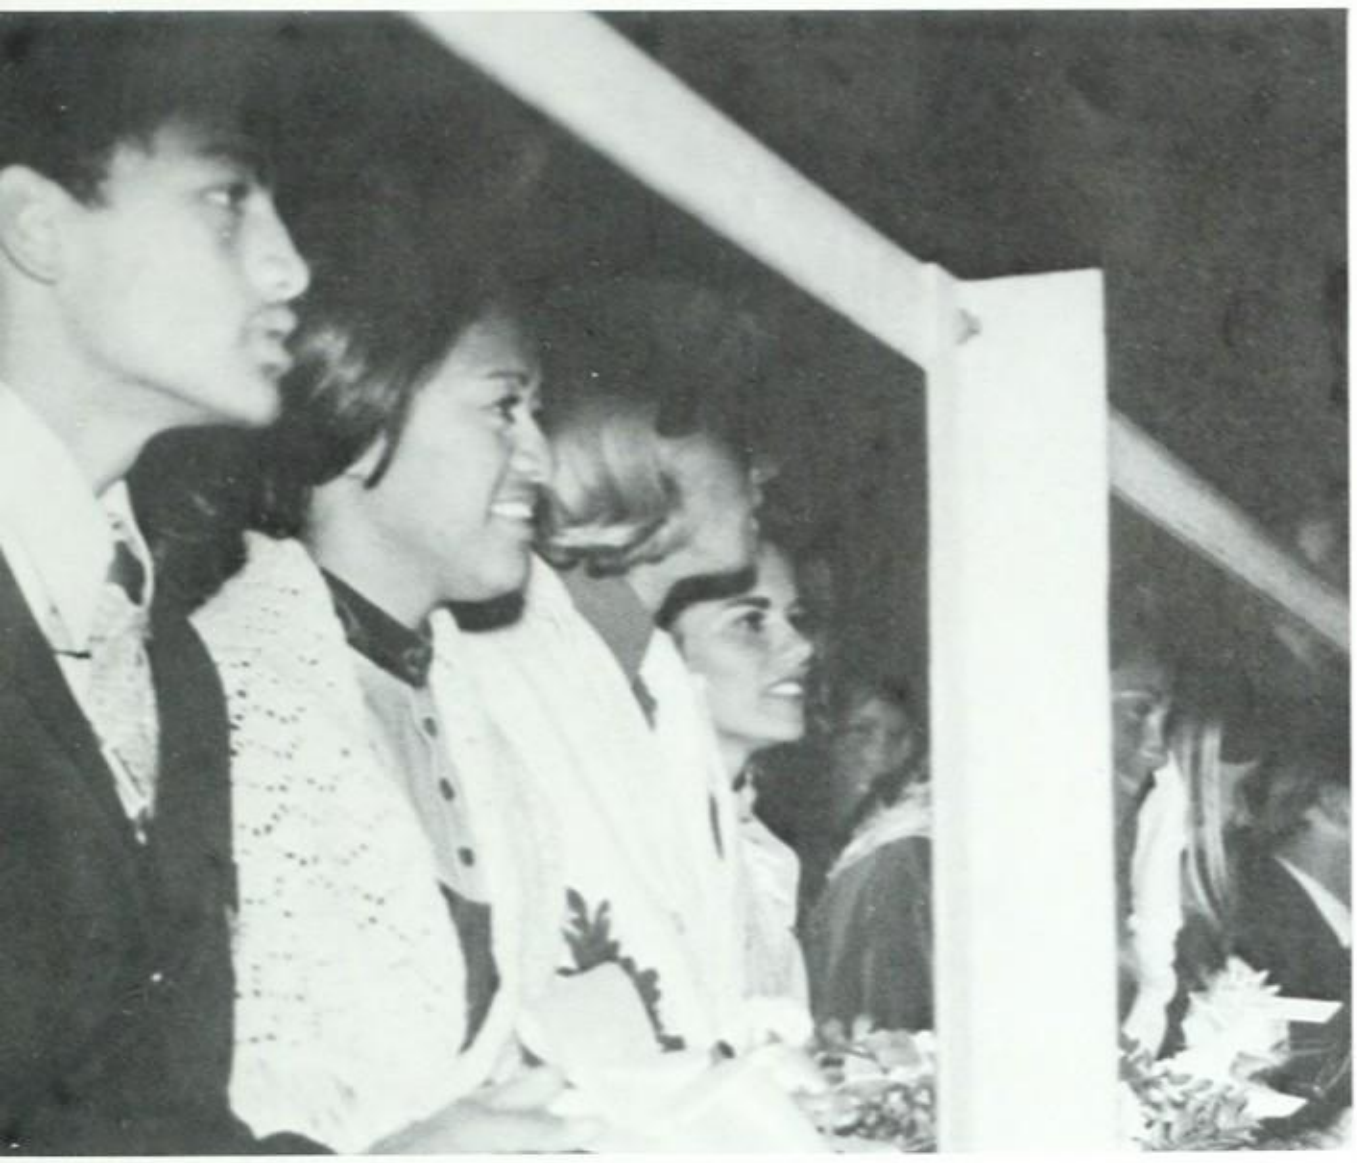
. . .Life everywhere involves the little and the great,
the new and the old.



It's been far-out knowing you.
And learning to love all the little things you do.
Listening to you when you're down and out.
And being with you when you're so happy you laugh and shout.
But now, my friend, there is something I must do.
And that's to say good-bye and may God bless you!

. . . Carol Weed

Rhonda,
We're hoping that your life will be a beautiful and happy one. Remember those times in Circus and avid with a racket in your hand. We enjoyed your friendship this past year.

God richly bless you

THE OCEANSIDE HIGH SCHOOL HAS BEEN IN EXISTENCE FOR SIXTY-SIX YEARS (1906-72). THROUGH ALL THESE YEARS IT HAS EXISTED AS A SINGLE-CAMPUS INSTITUTION OFFERING THE VALUES OF AN AMERICAN SECONDARY EDUCATION TO THE YOUTHS OF THE AREA. NOW THIS YEAR, 1972, FOR THE FIRST TIME IN ITS LONG LIFE, OHS BECOMES A TWO-CAMPUS SCHOOL. FRESHMAN AND SOPHOMORE CLASSES, OCCUPYING THE OLD CAMPUS NEAR DOWNTOWN OCEANSIDE, WILL HENCEFORTH CONSTITUTE OHS-WEST; JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLASSES, HOUSED AT THE NEW CAMPUS IN THE CITY'S NEWLY DEVELOPING EASTERN REACHES, MAKE UP OHS-EAST. THUS THE YOUNG AND OLD, THE AGED AND THE NEW FURTHER INTERTWINE TO CONSTITUTE THE MANY-FACETED LIFE THAT IS OHS.

REMEMBER

Remember me when I am gone away.
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand.
Now I half turn to go, yet turning stay.
Remember me, when no more; day by day
You tell me of our future that you planned;
Only remember me; you understand
It will be too late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterward remember, do not grieve;
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

Forward is a step you should always take,
A step that will show the way.
The way to a full and happy life,
A life that's fun and gay.

But backwards, never, 'cause it's all the past,
The past that's full of sadness.
So, forward ever, backward, never!
'Cause forward's the step to gladness.

ANSWERS IN MY LIFE

Because that's the way I want it to be; because he's all I need to get by; because he's my everything; because every-day isn't the same.

Because he's the only one I care about; because he's whom I want to see and no one else; because he left town and I miss him a lot; because it's the I-love-him-and-he-loves-me game.

WHAT IS LOVE?

What is love?
Is love something you feel?
Or is love something that isn't real?

Is love open to anyone who asks?
Or must love be a heartbreaking task?

Can you take love and not give in return?
Have you heard of a log being lighted and not getting burned?

Well, what love is I don't really know.
Maybe someday I'll feel it when the north winds blow.

HAPPINESS

Sometimes I wonder where happiness lies.
Is it found on the ocean beneath the blue skies?

REMEMBERED TWICE

Not far from here there's a place.
It used to be a white seashore
Full of surf and sun and happiness and love.
I used to go there to be with you and live each moment.

I walked by that place today.
It's not at all what I had remembered.
It's only a cold, wet beach
Where the sand sticks between your toes.
And the sun has gone down, and the water covers the sand
Where I sat with you.

Funny though, things are never the same,
Remembered twice.

HATRED

Hatred is all around this world. Please tell me why.
People fight and kill and so many die.

Can someone stop this horrid thing, war?
Can someone make people all love each other more?

Someday, perhaps, it'll come, my friend,
When hatred and war will come to an end.

Freshmen, the newly involved in life on OHS campus where mingle the new and the old, the little and the great.

FRIENDS

Once you pick a person who seems so very close,
You seem to put your trust in him because you like him most.
Then, as time goes on, you begin to call him friend.
And as you talk you say to him this friendship will never end.
But now, when times are going bad,
you forget the things once said,
And turn against each other, then never talk again.

A DREAM OF LOVE

Love came fast. I turned around and there he stood, and with him followed kindness, passion, understanding and unselfishness.

He kissed me and then turned away. But he soon returned with his love, and he gave it to me, wrapped in his tender tears.

That was the day my soul met his, and now he and I are us, and we will share the world and all its joys and wonders.

We will be us forever, for nothing can part us. We are tomorrow, today and yesterday, and it will be for many years.

Love is what I needed, what I've got, and what I'll always have as long as he is with me. And he too shall have love.

I welcome you, friend,
Into my world.
I will try to give to you
The things which I value most in life.
Take these things for what they're worth
But never throw them away.

Return them to me, if you must.
You are welcome to my dreams,
My desires,
My achievements and
My downfalls. . .

But before I let you in, friend,
Please. . . .
Be gentle.

—M.T.

QUESTIONS???

Why is it everywhere I go
He's on my mind?
And when I hear a song that reminds me of him,
Why do I cry?
Why is it somedays he makes me happy?
And others he makes me want to die?

Why do I constantly think about him?
Why do I look for him everywhere
I go?
Why do I hope to see him?
Will it hurt if my feelings show?

Why do I ask these questions?
Do you think anyone knows?
Why does he live inside me?
Could it be that I love him so?

In the Ride-Along-Program

students rode with different policemen each day (one or two to a patrol car) on their beat to see just what "keeping the peace" was like. Some had very exciting and rewarding experiences; others had quiet days. This program, begun by Mrs. Geneva Hickman, OHS civics teacher, created state and national news stories.

Officers Dennis Gilmer, Bruce Dunn, Sam Wilkins, Bill Kruglevich and OHS students Charles Wilkinson, Barry Dungy, Harvey Schroeder, Marlene Childs, Sharon Brooks, Jeanne Vivelros, Patti Kinder with Mrs. Geneva Hickman.

(foreground) and Sharon Brooks ride along. Both now want a career in law enforcement.

These students are not in jail for being "busted", but are viewing the premises as spectators and very glad they are free to walk out the back door! All scenes from the facilities of the Oceanside Police Department.

Civics students at the municipal court.

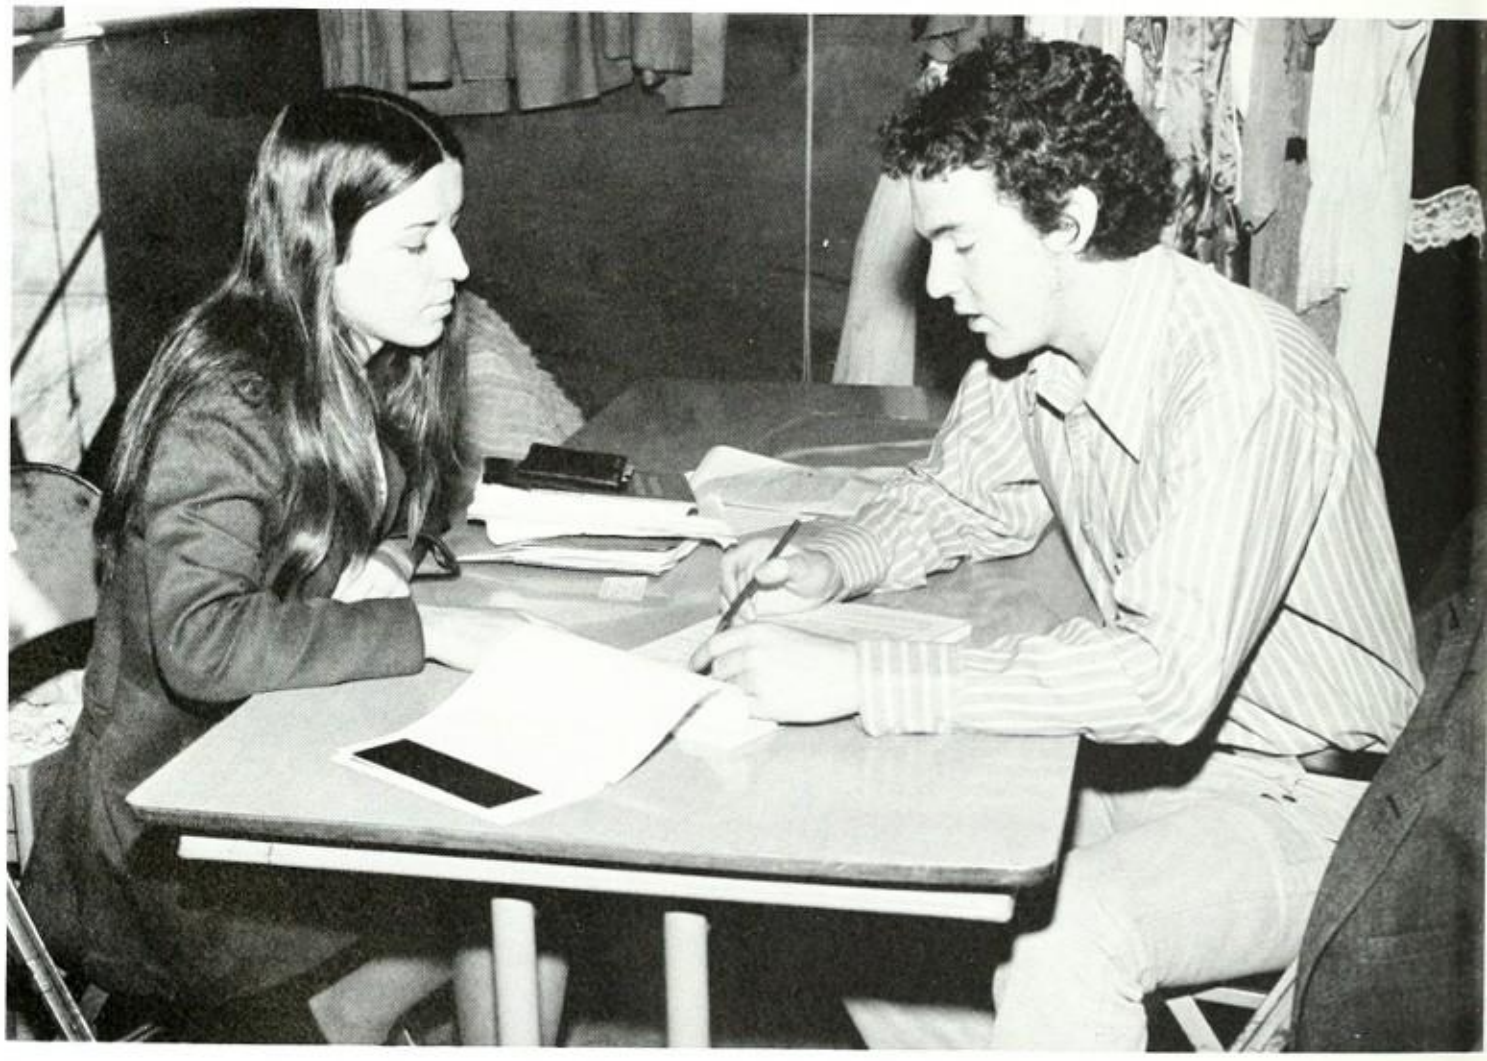
Steve Berringer of Frontlash, from San Diego, talked to students and taught them how to register to vote. Below, Steve Mills, one of Mrs. Kealy's (OHS civics teacher) students, became an official registrar of voters. Shown registering to vote for the first time is Cindy Bollington.



Sometimes the government comes to the students. Above, Sen Claire Bugener poses with several members of the Associated Student Body (OHS student governing body) after addressing the civics classes at OHS. Other political speakers included Assemblyman John Stull (left) and Dr. Shores (UCSD) of the Peace and Freedom Party, and representatives from the Democratic, Republican and American Independent Parties.

Several original members, not pictured here, left the staff at or about the beginning of the second semester in this school year. Among them are members whose early work for the yearbook was particularly valuable . . . Anne Aldrich, Julie Gleason, Dennis Lynch, Anthea McCarthy, Art Mobley.

Among them JULIE GLEASON must be singled out for special mention here for the large volume of work she single handedly accomplished in a most prompt and finished manner. Among her many contributions to this book is the complete layout of the senior photos section.

Of the entire 1972 yearbook staff, LETITIA PEPPER earns recognition as Most Valuable Staff Member. Her dedication, perseverance, thoroughness and unselfish application to assignments were important contributions without which the staff could not possibly have completed its work on time!!
